TRIED, TESTED & TRUSTED

PERFECT CHRISTMAS GIFT

“We ordered the Cherries as a corporate gift and everyone loved them! They said they were high quality, delicious, and a nice change from the chocolates/biscuits/wine that people usually give at Christmas time. The discussions I had with the team were helpful and they made sure to address every aspect so that when the time came for them to be delivered we knew exactly what was happening.”

Rowan

EXCEPTIONAL

“Snowgoose gift boxes are always of the highest quality and beautifully presented. The fruit is AMAZING – quality, taste & presentation!!! It won't be long before you receive a phone call thanking you for the wonderful gift they have received. I've purchased at least 30 gift boxes and wouldn't hesitate to recommend for Corporate Gifts or for any celebration.”

THE SNOWGOOSE CHERRY LEGACY

For over 20 years, we've overseen the packing of our boxes of delectable Australian cherries. So, it's no surprise when it comes to these festive fruit favourites, our experienced team knows best.

Biting into a Snowgoose cherry has become a revered experience among foodies. Left to tree ripen for two to three days longer than regular cherries, they amass a wonderful sugar content. With cherry season aligning perfectly with the festive season, Snowgoose cherries have become a mainstay at many family summer celebrations. With their rich red hue and striking flavour, they are ideal to arrange amongst delicious platters as a sumptuous fresh dessert or as a guilt-free treat eaten straight from the box.

We are immensely proud to guarantee each exceptional cherry experience, giving customers the magnificent knowledge that they are devouring the largest and sweetest cherries in Australia this summer.
